Diane Lamison

1645 South Drive York, PA 17408

July 20, 1952 – September 24, 2011

Family: Diane was married to Bing for 39 years. Following Bing's service to the US Air Force Diane and Bing have been residing in York for the past 19 years. They have five grown children. Four of their children are married and one lives at home. They have eight grandchildren and adore being grandparents!

Work: Diane served on the staff of Eagle Christian Ministries Church for 13 years. She filled many roles during that time; counselor, teacher, music director, administrator, and building teams for the Ladies Ministry and Children's Ministry. In July of 2006 she resigned from her position and continued to volunteer at the church in various capacities while focusing on teaching and speaking.

Interests: For the past seven years Diane was a member of the White Rose Toastmasters Club in York. She took first place in the Evaluation Contest for her Region and has been a presenter at several of the District Toastmasters Trainings. She has served as President, VP of Membership and Secretary for her club.

Hobbies: Understanding how people think amazes Diane. She loved anything creative – music, painting, flower arranging, sewing, gardening, photography.....etc.

Current: Diane's focus was on speaking, teaching, and writing. Her main areas of expertise were; Resolving Conflict, Positive Momentum, Team Building and The Power of Free Choice. Encouragement is a gift Diane flows in which breathes life and hope into each presentation.
